The Royal British Legion

You are cordially invited to attend this year's Remembrance Day talk by David Thornycroft in aid of The Royal British Legion. In the 80th anniversary year of D Day, the talk is based further north than usual but includes the part played by the Resistance in this area in delaying German reinforcements.

The venue is once again the Espace Culturel at Eymet. You will be asked to make a donation of 10 euros to The Royal British Legion at the door, which will include a glass of wine after the talk. Blevins Franks Financial Management Ltd have generously offered to pay our costs, so every euro goes straight to The Royal British Legion.

Please feel free to pass this invitation on to any friends or family you think might enjoy it. If you have already received one from RBL or from Blevins Franks, I apologise but I was severely taken to task last year by people who only learnt about it after the event, so I am trying to make sure that everyone who might want to come, gets invited.

As always, an indication of numbers planning to attend, by email to thornycroftd@gmail.com, would be much appreciated so that we can get the administrative arrangements right. I hope to see you at the Espace Culturel in Eymet at 1100 Saturday 2 November. Doors will open (I hope) at 1030.
